

The Janeway Research Advisory Committee (JRAC) is pleased to announce that it is now accepting applications for a special competition for the Janeway Foundation's Research Awards. These awards will support research which have a strong potential for improving children's health care in Newfoundland and Labrador.

These research grants will be awarded to independent researchers. Awards will be valued at a minimum of $50,000 and maximum of $100,000. Successful research proposals will have a high likelihood of directly impacting pediatric (i.e., children and youth 0-18 years old) health care in Newfoundland and Labrador in the near term (3 to 5 years).

Please see the committee's terms of reference for this award for more information about the awards (attached).

Complete and signed applications must be received by:

4:30 PM, Thursday, February 16th 2023

Due date for Research Initiatives and Services (RIS) general application in MUN Researcher Portal is Monday, February 13th, 2023.

Please check with your faculty/unit for their internal deadlines.

Applications must include the independent investigator cover page (attached), and complete contact information for the applicant (phone, mail address, and email address).

Applications must include a project proposal of no more than five pages (excluding references), a one-page budget and justification, and a current CV from the principal applicant. The project proposal should include the following sections: A) background and rationale; B) research objectives; C) experimental design and methods; D) relevance to children's health in Newfoundland and Labrador; E) implications for future research; and F) project timeline.

All grant applications must be submitted via the MUN Researcher Portal for both faculty level and institutional level approval by RIS prior to submission to the Janeway Foundation Grant competition. Each application should be submitted as a single PDF file, with the completed cover page scanned into the application and an institutional approval from the RIS. This PDF file should be sent to Dr. Robert Porter, Chair, Janeway Research Advisory Council (JRAC), at jf.awards@mun.ca.

Applications received after the deadline will not be reviewed for this special competition.

We look forward to receiving your application.
